The Order of The Founders and Patriots of America

REGISTER: 1902

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY OF THE
GENERAL COURT OF THE ORDER
MCMII

Preface.

THE Order of the Founders and Patriots of America having greatly increased in numbers, the necessity of knowing who were their fellow-members was pressed upon the Associates of the Order, and at the annual meeting of the General Court, May 13, 1901, the subject of gratifying the desire for such information was considered, and a committee was appointed to take up the matter, with directions to report to the Council General. At the autumn meeting of the Council General in 1901 that committee made a report, and the Council General directed the committee to proceed and prepare the material for the Register—then, however, planned to be a modest pamphlet, with provision for binding copies for such Associates as would bear such expense each for himself.

The data and information in possession of the Registrar General was most necessary to the work of the Committee, and to him the committee resorted for his aid and assistance, which was most cheerfully given and was most satisfactory; and the committee desire here to acknowledge the obligations to Associate Teunis Dimon Huntting, the Registrar General of the Order, resting upon every Associate to whom this book shall come, for his persistent, industrious, painstaking and cheerfully-performed work, in gathering, from the "application papers" and the records in his possession, the data and information which has enabled the committee to perform the work laid upon it.

Such a book as this Register must of necessity become a book of reference to very many, a means of preserving family history to those who follow us, and also of gathering up and preserving a record of the personal public services of the Associates of the Order.

Within the forty-one years past, and during the lifetime of most of the Associates, our country has passed through two wars in which many have served. In view of all this the committee addressed to every Associate a circular letter, asking the same information from all, and to that end requesting answers to the same questions from each, to be returned to the Registrar General. Many who did answer it were very modest concerning their personal history. Some incidents of most honorable service, stated as to many Associates, were not communicated at all by them, and facts not stated by them have been gleaned from other sources. Wherever information given as to one is not given as to another it does not follow that nothing of like interest remained to be communicated as to those of whom like things are not said, but such things were not stated in the information returned. Many Associates, we regret, for reasons no doubt satisfactory to themselves, did not answer the circular letter at all.

At the annual meeting of the General Court on May 13, 1902, the committee reported to the General Court a mass of manuscript to be used in the Register, and it was then instructed to go forward with the work, and by vote of the General Court was ordered to print the book for distribution, and an appropriation was made for the purpose liberal enough to satisfy every demand.

The book is now laid before the General Court and the Associates of the Order. It will be found to contain mistakes, no doubt; but only those persons who have had a hand in such work can appreciate the amount of labor bestowed upon it, or the inevitable liability to error. We beg that any Associate to whom a mistake or omission becomes apparent will be very lenient in judgment and in criticism, and pardon the committee for the unintended error, write to the Registrar General specifying every mistake and stating how it should be corrected, and supply to the Registrar General all omitted information as to himself or any other Associate. By so doing, the Registrar General will have on file the means of correcting errors and adding information in future Registers, which will no doubt follow.

Although personal facts other than genealogical information have been asked and used, it will no doubt be noted that some information, as to the membership, and services, of some Associates in other societies and clubs, has not been used. If the book were a register of club men, or society men, it would no doubt be very much larger than it is. It has been deemed by the committee best to confine such personal information to the facts concerning Education, College and University degrees, and public services of the Associates.

The Publication Committee desires to remind the Associates of the Order that equal justice should, for the sake of future history, be done to the stories of the personal services of every Associate. If an Associate is so modest as to desire not to give for himself an account of what he has done for his country, some other Associate ought to furnish it for him. We, therefore, ask that every Associate who, in reading this book, shall discover that the public services, civil or military, of any other Associate are not here recorded, will prepare a statement of such services and forward it to the Registrar-General, for use in the preparation of the next Register.

In editing the Roll of Associates, the Committee have found the names of the following Associates who served in the Civil War:

George Emerson Albee,
Harry Elihu Atwater,
Henry Baldwin,
John Blake Burt,
George Washington Case,
Edward Payson Cone,

Henry Stewart Turrill.

As the pages of the book shall be consulted, or read, a fact that cannot escape attention, is the prevalence in the genealogical lines of the Associates of Bible names, and of those easily recognized as peculiarly Puritan names, among the men, as Barnabas, Bartholomew, Job, Daniel, Elijah, Hezekiah, Ebenezer, Joshua, Japeth, Abijah, Elihu, Hopestill, Preserved, Jedediah, Israel, Bezaleel; also among the women as Magdalen, Tryphena, Tamar, Hannah, Tabitha, Hepsibah, Deborah, Mehitable, Eunice, Lois, Priscilla, Ruth, Prudence, Mercy, Wait, Submit, Grace, Silence, Plain, Hopestill, Thankful, Experience, Deliverance, Sophronia, Rhoda, Dorcas, Keziah, Penelope, Hepsibeth, Hilpah, and many others of the like, all of which cannot now be mentioned.

Such facts cannot fail to tell the story of the kind of blood which flows in the veins of the Associates, and to assure that they came of a race of God-fearing, Bible-loving, religion-respecting, and virtue-valuing ancestors; such as we shall, not only as of those days, but in all days, be glad we came from, the men and women who made sturdy characters and good habits, an ancestry of the kind to whom this great nation of ours owes more for its solid, law-abiding and law-honoring, good citizenship, than to any other of the emigrant peoples who followed to find homes in the good land our ancestors had subdued for them.

The Order of the Founders and Patriots of America

THE motive leading to the formation of The Order of the Founders and Patriots of America, at a time when so many hereditary societies, born of the Centennial Era beginning in 1876, were already in existence, was the desire to meet certain most desirable requirements which none of the existing organizations seemed to meet. There were Societies of lineal descendants of patriots of the American Revolution and of other subsequent wars, membership in which indicated no antecedent American lineage. On the other hand, there were societies of descendants of ante-revolutionary progenitors, membership in which did not indicate that the intermediate ancestors during the War for Independence were loyal to the American cause. There was nothing in the eligibility requirements of the latter Societies to exclude from membership persons whose ancestors in the same line were allied with the enemies of the Colonies during the great sacrificial crisis in which our republic was brought into being as an independent nation. In fact, entrance into such latter societies was open to, and into them actually entered, those whose ancestors in the revolutionary period actually fought against the Colonies, and against the patriots whose memory we delight to honor and who offered their lives and their all to found the nation and the liberties we enjoy and have inherited from them.

It was therefore believed, and the belief has been justified by events, that there was room for an hereditary Order whose insignia should be a badge of double honor—honor of descent from those brave and hardy pioneers who subdued the primeval wilderness and first planted within the limits of the original colonies the civilization which now leads the world, and honor of descent from those who, in patriotism and devotion and love of liberty, founded the first republic in the western hemisphere and the greatest republic among the nations of the earth.

Moved by these feelings an informal conference of a few of the descendants of those founders and patriots was called and held at the Astor House in New York City on the 24th day of February, 1896, at which it was determined to form this Order.

The terms of eligibility, as afterward framed and inserted in the Constitution, were agreed upon, in short that every member must be descended in the male line of father or mother, from an ancestor who settled in one of the thirteen original colonies within fifty years (half a century) from the settlement of Jamestown, Va., May 13, 1607 and through the same line only, through patriots in the revolutionary period but not of necessity through those who rendered military service. A second conference for the purpose agreed upon was held at the Hotel Endicott, in New York City, March 9th, 1896, at which time the name of the Order was agreed upon and steps taken toward its organization and the work of preparing the necessary papers for incorporation, was assigned.

A third conference was held at the office of Mr. Henry Hall in the Tribune Building, Printing House Square, in New York City, on the 16th day of March, 1896, at which there were present Messrs. John Quincy Adams, William Winton Goodrich, Edward Nelson Granville Greene, Henry Hall, Howard Marshall, Henry Lincoln Morris, Ralph Earl Prime, Howard Sumner Robbins and Charles Waterman Bentley Wilkinson. "It was then formally agreed by the nine gentlemen present to take measures to form a new Colonial and Patriotic society, and to that end to incorporate according to the laws of the State of New York, and that the name of the new society shall be 'The Order of the Founders and Patriots of America,' and that the New York Society of the Order shall be incorporated." Thereupon and at that time the certificate of incorporation was signed and executed in duplicate by the nine gentlemen named and present, who thus became the Founders of the Order. Directions were given for obtaining the approval of the certificate by a Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York and the filing thereof in the proper public offices. The gentlemen then present agreed to meet again March 23, 1896, at the Hotel Endicott in New York City.

The Certificate of Incorporation was, on the 17th day of March, 1896, duly approved by Hon. Jackson O. Dykman, a Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and on the 18th day of March one of the duplicate certificates was duly filed in the office of the Secretary of State in Albany, N. Y., and the other duplicate certificate, was the same 18th day of March, 1896, duly filed in the office of the Clerk of the County of New York in New York City and the New York Society thus became incorporated.

Pursuant to appointment, five of the nine Founders met again in the evening of March 23d, 1896, at the Hotel Endicott. For the completion of the organization, the work was divided and assigned to different persons. The formation of the society having been made public, many applications for admission had been received by the different Founders, all of which were referred to a membership committee, for investigation, as were also the lines of descent of the Founders of the Order.

Again, on the 6th day of April, 1896, a meeting of the Founders was held at the Hotel Endicott. At this time there were also present some of those who had applied for membership and whose eligibility had been approved by the membership committee. A form of constitution and by-laws was reported and was discussed and after adding a provision for the eligibility of the sons of original members, the work was approved and it was determined to accord to all whose applications for membership had been approved, the privilege of participating in the adoption of the constitution and by-laws and such were then denominated Charter Members.

On the evening of the 24th day of April, 1896, at the Hotel Normandie, in the City of New York, a meeting of the Charter Members was held. At that time they were seventy-eight in number. At that meeting the constitution and by-laws of the Order, which had already been approved by the Founders, was presented and read in full, and with an amendment providing for dual membership was adopted, and the organization completed by the election of the officers and councillors of the New York Society of the Order of the Founders and Patriots of America.

The terms of the constitution provided for a Society of the Order in each State and for a General Court of the Order to be composed of The Founders of the Order, the Officers of the General Court, with representatives of each of the State Societies, consisting of the first eight (since nine) of its officers, and it authorized the New York State Society of the Order, to act as the General Court until the General Court should be organized by the representatives of at least three State Societies and meanwhile to issue charters to such State Societies as it should organize. Each member was to be known as an Associate.

On the 24th day of April, 1896, the Council of the New York Society of the Order, granted a charter to nine Associates to organize the New Jersey Society of the Order, and appointed its first meeting to be held at the house of Associate William Armstrong Halsey in Newark, N. J., on the 28th day of April, 1896, at which time and place the New Jersey Society of the Order was organized.

On the 1st day of May, 1896, the Council of the New York society of the Order granted a charter to nine Associates to organize the Connecticut Society of the Order, and appointed its first meeting to be held at the house of Associate Charles Augustus Jewell, in Hartford, Conn., on the 9th day of May, 1896, at which time and place the Connecticut Society of the Order was organized.

Three Societies of the Order having thus been organized, the Founders of the Order and the officers of those Societies, entitled to sit in the General Court of the Order, met in the historic Governor's Room, in the City Hall in the City of New York, on the 13th day of May, 1896, the 289th anniversary of the settlement of Jamestown, Va., and organized the General Court of the Order, and elected its General Officers and Councillors General, and the General Court then became the Supreme Governing body of the Order.

The Order of the Founders and Patriots of America.

On the 28th day of December, 1896, the Council General granted a charter to eleven Associates (to which number four others were subsequently added) to organize the Pennsylvania Society of the Order, and appointed its first meeting to be held in the city of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 14th day of January, 1897, at which time and place the Pennsylvania Society of the Order was organized.

On the 13th day of May, 1899, the Council General granted a charter to ten Associates to organize the Massachusetts Society of the Order, and appointed its first meeting to be held in the city of Boston, Mass., at such time and place as the Secretary General should fix. The Secretary General did fix such time and place and at such meeting in Boston, Mass, the Massachusetts Society of the Order was organized. All the offices of the Society, however, have not since been filled.

The Order of the Founders and Patriots of America now consist of the General Court of the Order and four State Societies of the Order and numbers in all 514 Associates.

Its membership consists of citizens of the United States, who are descended in the paternal line of either father or mother, from an ancestor who settled within the limits, of what became the original thirteen colonies during the first half century, from the first settlement in America, at Jamestown, Va., May 13, 1607, and whose intermediate ancestors in the same line were loyal to the cause of the American Colonies during the War for their Independence. Pursuant to an amendment, adopted May 13, 1902, it also admits to membership the male descendants of Associates of the Order, thus making the members a new stock for the perpetuation of the Order.

Constitution and By-laws.

PREAMBLE.

Recognizing Almighty God as guiding our ancestors to this land, to establish, through their descendants, not a Colony, but an independent sovereign Christian nation, destined by Him to occupy a commanding place among the nations of the earth; and, to protect and defend liberty in all the Western Hemisphere; and, recognizing that the foundations of the nation were laid, in the perils and hardships of the first half century, by our ancestor settlers of that period, rather than in the years that followed; and, recognizing that, necessary to the end for which our ancestors came, was a patriot progeny, in the time of the Revolutionary struggle, out of which our country came to be independent, and our nation came into being—for ourselves, and those who may associate with us, we have formed an Association, founded on descent from such ancestry and their patriot descendants:

Therefore, to that end, we adopt the following Constitution:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

The name of this Association is "The Order of The Founders and Patriots of America."

ARTICLE II.

OBJECTS.

The objects of the Order are:

1. To bring together and associate men whose ancestors struggled together for life and liberty, home and happiness, in this land, when it was a new and unknown country, and whose line of descent from them comes through patriots who sustained the colonies in the struggle for independence in the Revolutionary War.

2. To teach reverent regard for the names and history, character and perseverance, deeds and heroism, of the founders of this country and their patriotic descendants.

Constitution and By-laws.

3. To inculcate patriotism in the Associates and their descendants.
4. To discover, collect and preserve records, documents, manuscripts, monuments and history relating to the first colonists, their ancestors and descendants.
5. To commemorate and celebrate events in the history of the colonies and the republic.
6. Other historical and patriotic purposes.

ARTICLE III.

ORGANIZATION.

The Order shall consist of:

1. A General Court, to be known as "The General Court of The Order of The Founders and Patriots of America."

2. A Society in each State, District or Territory of the United States, and in such foreign States and Countries as the General Court may authorize, each of which, prefixed with the name of the political division in which located, is to be known as "The.....Society of The Order of The Founders and Patriots of America."

ARTICLE IV.

GENERAL COURT.

SECTION 1. The General Court shall consist of the Founders of the Order; also all past General Officers; also all General Officers, Councillors General, and Officers of the several Societies of the Order, during their respective terms of office; provided, however, that no person shall be a member of the General Court unless he shall be at the time an Associate in good standing in one of the Societies of the Order.

SEC. 2. The Officers of the General Court shall be a Governor General, a Deputy Governor General, a Chaplain General, a Secretary General, a Treasurer General, an Attorney General, a Registrar General, a Genealogist General and an Historian General, each to hold office for one year, or until his successor is elected and installed. There shall also be nine Councillors General, three of whom shall be elected each year, each Councillor General to hold office for three years, or until his successor is elected and installed. The General Officers and Councillors General shall constitute the Council General. They shall be elected at the annual meeting, by ballot. No officer of the General Court shall be elected to the same office for more than two successive terms, except by a unanimous vote.

SEC. 3. The annual meeting of the General Court shall be held on the 13th day of May in each year, or at such other time, as near as may be thereafter, as the Council General may determine. The General Court may hold such other meetings as it may determine by rule, order or resolution, or as may be called by the Governor General. The Governor General shall call meetings on request of nine members of the General Court.

SEC. 4. Nine members shall constitute a quorum, at all meetings of the General Court.

SEC. 5. In General Court each member thereof shall have one vote, except that, when a vote is taken by Societies, each member shall have one vote, and each Society shall have as many votes as it has enrolled

Constitution and By-laws.

Associates, in good standing, to be cast as a unit, unless any Society shall otherwise direct, and shall so certify to the Secretary General, in which case the vote of such Society shall be divided as nearly as may be equally among the members present from such Society and cast by them severally. One-third of the members, present in person at a meeting, may demand that any vote be taken by Societies, when the vote shall be cast in person. All other votes may be cast in person or by proxy.

SEC. 6. The General Court shall have and exercise the following powers:

1. The chief executive, legislative and judicial powers within the Order, and the general regulation of its affairs.

2. To entertain, hear and decide all appeals and complaints by any Society, or by an Associate, and to regulate the cases in which appeals may be taken.

3. To advise concerning any question arising under the Constitution or By-Laws of the Order when requested by any Society or its Council.

4. Upon application of any nine Associates of the Order, residing in any State, District, Territory or Country in which no Society of the Order exists, to constitute them and those whom they may admit, pursuant to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Order, into a Society of the Order for the political division in which they reside, and to fix a time and place for the first meeting, and grant such Society a charter.

5. To issue all diplomas of membership, all insignia and rosettes.

6. To provide, order and direct the form, and, on such terms as it shall fix, issue to the Societies of the Order stationery and blank applications for membership, also circulars or pamphlets setting forth the purposes and objects of the Order, and regulate the use thereof.

7. To require from Societies of the Order such reports, returns and statistics of Associates, of funds, and of other information, and the payment of assessments, as it may from time to time order.

8. To revoke or suspend the charter of any Society, for failure to obey the requirements of the Constitution or By-Laws of the Order, or for nonuser of its rights and privileges.

SEC. 7. No debt shall be incurred, or money be appropriated, or any action be taken affecting property, without the consent of at least three of the Councillors General. No liability shall be incurred, or appropriation made, exceeding one hundred dollars, except by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast in the General Court or Council General, such vote to be cast in person.

SEC. 8. The expenses of the General Court shall be provided for by the sale of diplomas, insignia and rosettes, and by pro rata assessments upon each of the Societies according to its respective number of Associates. The General Court or Council General may enforce payment of said assessments, by the revocation or suspension of the charter of any Society refusing or neglecting to pay the same, and such Society shall thereupon be debarred from representation in the General Court, but, upon payment, may be reinstated.

SEC. 9. The headquarters of the Order shall be in the city of New York.

ARTICLE V.

SOCIETIES OF THE ORDER.

SECTION 1. Each Society hereafter organized shall hold its membership in the Order by virtue of a charter from the General Court. After the receipt of its charter, the Society shall forthwith adopt a Seal, which shall not be changed, except by a two-thirds majority of the Associates present at an annual meeting. Any Society may be incorporated under the laws of its own State, District, Territory or Country, if a majority of its Associates present at an annual meeting shall elect to do so.

SEC. 2. The Officers of each Society shall be a Governor, a Deputy Governor, a Chaplain, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a States Attorney, a Registrar, a Genealogist and an Historian, each to hold office for one year, or until his successor is elected and installed. There shall also be nine Councillors, each Councillor to hold office for three years, or until his successor is elected and installed, provided, however, that the Society shall divide the Councillors first chosen into three classes, one class to serve one year, one two years, and one three years, or until their successors are elected and installed. The Officers and Councillors shall constitute the Council. They shall be elected at the annual meeting, by ballot. No Officer of any Society shall be elected to the same office, for more than two successive terms, except by a unanimous vote.

SEC. 3. Each Society shall hold an annual meeting, at such time and place, before the month of May, as its Council shall determine. Each Society may hold such other meetings as the Society or its Council may direct, or as may be called by its Governor.

SEC. 4. Nine Associates shall constitute a quorum, at all meetings of the Society.

SEC. 5. At meetings of the Society, each Associate shall have one vote. Associates may vote by proxy at any meeting, if the Society shall so determine, or the laws of the State, District, Territory, or Country so provide.

SEC. 6. Each Society may regulate its own affairs, subject to the provisions of the Constitution and By-Laws of the Order.

SEC. 7. Each Society may organize Chapters, to consist of not less than nine Associates, and grant charters thereto; and may revoke or suspend any such charter, for the failure of any Chapter to obey the requirements of the Constitution or By-Laws of the Order, or for nonuser of its rights and privileges.

SEC. 8. Each Society may provide for the suspension, or dropping from the rolls, after reasonable notice and an opportunity to be heard, of any Associate in arrears for dues, after they shall be due and payable for one year, but, upon payment, he may be reinstated by the Council. Any Associate, suspended or dropped from the rolls for non-payment of dues, shall not hold office in the Order, or sit in the General Court, during such suspension or unless reinstated.

SEC. 9. No Society of the Order shall have the power to incur any debt or enter into any continuing obligation, except on its own behalf, and not on behalf of the Order, nor on behalf of the General Court. No debt shall be incurred, or money be appropriated, or any action be taken affecting property, without the consent of at least three of the Councillors. No liability shall be incurred, or appropriation made, exceeding fifty dollars, except by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast in the Society or its Council, such vote to be cast in person.

SEC. 10. Each Society shall forthwith determine the location of its headquarters, which shall not thereafter be changed, except by a two-thirds majority of the Associates present at an annual meeting.

Constitution and By-laws.

ARTICLE VI.

FOUNDERS OF THE ORDER.

Those persons, nine in number, who, on the 16th day of March, 1896, subscribed the Certificate of Incorporation of the New York Society, and formed the Order, are hereby recognized as Founders of the Order.

ARTICLE VII.

MEMBERS OF THE ORDER.

SECTION 1. All members of the Order shall be active members of a Society of the Order, except as hereinafter provided, and shall be called "Associates."

SEC. 2. Any man of the age of twenty-one years, of good moral character and reputation, and a citizen of the United States, who is lineally descended, in the male line of either parent, from an ancestor who settled in any of the Colonies now included in the United States of America, prior to May 13, 1657, and one or all of whose intermediate ancestors, in the same line, who lived in the period of the Revolution, from 1775 to 1783, adhered as patriots to the cause of the Colonies, shall be eligible to membership in the Order, except as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 3. The male descendants of any Associate being of good moral character and reputation and citizens of the United States shall also be eligible to membership, provided that the claims of each such descendant shall be traced anew from the qualifying ancestors from whom the first Associate was eligible. (As amended May 13, 1902.)

SEC. 4. No person shall be admitted an Associate of the Order, without previous investigation into and ascertainment of his qualifications for membership. Each Society may provide for the manner of such investigation and ascertainment, and of the mode of election of its Associates, subject to the Constitution and By-laws of the Order, and may reject any applicant who may not be acceptable to it.

SEC. 5. Any person who shall have obtained membership by intentional misrepresentation or concealment, as to his qualification for membership, or who shall be guilty of any violation of the Constitution or By-laws of the Order, or who shall be guilty of conduct unbecoming a patriot or a good citizen, after due inquiry and hearing, shall be expelled from membership in the Order. Any person who shall have obtained membership by or through an innocent but material misstatement or non-statement, shall, after due inquiry and hearing, be dropped from membership in the Order.

Any person who shall have obtained membership as the descendant of an Associate of the Order, shall after due inquiry and hearing, be dropped from membership, in case it shall appear that the Associate of the Order from whom he descended was not qualified for membership. (As amended May 13, 1902.)

SEC. 6. Each Associate shall pay an initiation fee and one year's dues, and sign the Constitution and By-laws of the Order, either in person or by proxy, within three months after notice of election to membership. If he shall fail to comply with these conditions within the time specified, without sufficient reason being given, his election shall be void.

SEC. 7. An Associate of one Society of the Order may be transferred to another Society, upon his written request, under such regulations as the Society of which he is an Associate, and that to which he seeks transfer, may prescribe.

OBVERSE.

REVERSE.

Constitution and By-laws.

SEC. 8. Membership in two or more Societies, by the same person, may be authorized and regulated by the several Societies. All persons must first become Associates of a Society, if any, in the State, District, Territory or Country within whose jurisdiction they reside.

SEC. 9. The General Court may by a three-fourths vote elect to honorary membership such Associates as shall have rendered distinguished service to the Country or to the Order. Honorary members shall be exempt from the payment of dues.

ARTICLE VIII.

INSIGNIA, ETC.

SECTION I. The Insignia of the Order shall be a badge of gold, as follows:

Obverse—Upon a radiated star or, a cross enamelled gules; thereon the effigy of an officer, in Continental uniform, surmounted by that of Captain Miles Standish, habited in morion and breast-plate; both effigies within a chaplet of oak and laurel leaves, all or.

Reverse—Upon a radiated star or, a star of thirteen points enamelled azure; in its centre, the arms of the United States, in relief, within a white circle, inscribed "Steadfast for God and Country," all or.

A gold swivel ring, pendant from a larger gold ring, shall suspend the badge from a ribbon.

The Ribbon of the Order shall be of watered silk, one and three-quarter inches in width, the colors of which, reading from dexter to sinister, shall be azure, argent, sable, argent and gules.

The Rosette, or Button, of the Order, shall be one-half inch in diameter, of watered silk; in its centre, a cross gules, upon a white field; on its edge, or rim, the colors azure, argent, sable, gules, argent and sable.

The Flag of the Order shall be the Flag of the United States of America, as regulated by Act of Congress.

The Standard of the Order shall be a field argent, surmounted by a cross gules; on a canton azure, a constellation of thirteen stars of the first.

The Seal of the Order shall be two and one-half inches in diameter, as follows:

Upon a shield or, a Continental soldier, at attention, habited proper, surrounded by a constellation of thirteen stars azure; upon the centre of the chief, a ship of the Seventeenth Century, under full sail, proper; above the shield, the dates 1607-1657; beneath the shield, the date 1776; the whole surrounded by an annulet gules, inscribed "The Order of the Founders and Patriots of America"; in exergue, 1896; the edge beaded; the field or.

SEC. 2. The membership Diploma, Insignia, Ribbon and Rosette, or Button, shall only be issued from and by authority of the General Court, under such regulations as it from time to time may prescribe, and may from time to time be changed, but only by the General Court at an annual meeting and by a two-thirds majority of all the votes cast, the vote being taken by Societies, provided the change has been proposed by one Society of the Order, and notice thereof given by it to the Secretary General, and to the Secretary of each other Society of the Order, at least one month before the annual meeting of the General Court. The same notice and vote shall be necessary, to change the Seal or Standard of the Order.

Constitution and By-laws.

ARTICLE IX.

AMENDMENTS.

This Constitution may only be amended at an annual meeting of the General Court, by a two-thirds majority of all the votes cast, the vote being taken by Societies; provided the amendment has been proposed by one Society of the Order, and notice thereof given by it to the Secretary General, and to the Secretary of each other Society of the Order, at least one month before the annual meeting of the General Court.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

OFFICERS OF GENERAL COURT.

SECTION 1. The Governor General shall be the official head of the Order, and shall perform such duties as pertain to that office. He shall preside at all meetings of the General Court and of the Council General. He shall appoint all committees, unless otherwise ordered by the General Court or Council General.

SEC. 2. The Deputy Governor General, in the absence of the Governor General, shall perform his duties and exercise his powers. In the absence of the Governor General and Deputy Governor General from a meeting, a chairman pro tem. shall be chosen to preside.

SEC. 3. The Chaplain General shall perform such religious services as may be called for by the General Court or the Council General.

SEC. 4. The Secretary General shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the General Court and the Council General, and shall have charge of the Constitution, By-laws, Seal and General Records of the General Court and Council General. He shall give due notice to each member of the General Court of its meetings, and to the members of the Council General of their meetings. He shall conduct the general correspondence of the Order under the direction of the Governor General, keep a record of all checks countersigned by him, and perform such other duties as may be required of him by the General Court, or by the Council General. All the books, records and papers kept by him, or in his charge officially, shall be the property of the Order. He shall make a report in writing at the annual meeting of the General Court, and at such other times as the General Court or the Council General may direct.

SEC. 5. The Treasurer General shall collect and receive all funds belonging to the General Court, and deposit the same to the credit of the Order, in such manner as the General Court or Council General may direct. He shall give such bond as may be required by the Council General.

Constitution and By-laws.

He shall pay out money only as the General Court or Council General shall order, by check, signed by him and countersigned by the Secretary General. He shall make a full and classified report, in writing, of money received and paid out, at the annual meeting of the General Court, and at such other times as the General Court or Council General may direct. He shall keep full and accurate accounts in books, to be the property of the Order, which shall always be open to the inspection of any officer of the General Court.

SEC. 6. The Attorney General shall be the law adviser of the General Court. He shall have charge of and supervise the proceedings relating to the formation of Societies of the Order.

SEC. 7. The Registrar General shall have the custody of all duplicate applications for membership, shall examine the same, approve or disapprove thereof, and advise the Registrar of the Society, from which they come, of such approval or disapproval, within one month after their submission to him, and the reason therefor when disapproved, which approval or disapproval shall be manifested before the admission of an Associate, subject to appeal to the General Court, which appeal shall be submitted to the Genealogist General, for examination and report, by the Registrar of the Society concerned therein. The Registrar General shall give a number in the Order to each Associate, in the order of the notification of the elections. He shall keep a roll of all Associates of the Order, the Society to which each belongs, the residence of each, and his number in the Order. He shall make a report in writing at the annual meeting of the General Court, and at such other times as the General Court or the Council General may direct, and perform such other duties as the General Court or the Council General may require.

SEC. 8. The Genealogist General shall examine and report to the Council General upon all appeals from the decision or want of action of the Registrar General, which shall be submitted to him for that purpose, within one month after their submission to him, and shall at the same time advise the Registrar of the Society, from whom he received such appeal, of the result of his examination.

SEC. 9. The Historian General shall have the custody of all documents and papers relating to the genealogy and history of the first colonists, their ancestors and descendants, which may be in the possession of or loaned to the General Court, which shall be subject to the use and control of the General Court or Council General, and shall, when necessary, be subject to the inspection of the Genealogist General. He shall make report in writing, at the annual meeting of the General Court, and at such other times as the General Court or the Council General may direct. He shall perform such other duties as the General Court or the Council General may require.

SEC. 10. The Council General shall exercise the powers of the General Court, when the General Court is not in session. Five of its members shall constitute a quorum of the Council General. Meetings of the Council General may be called by the Governor General, or, at the request of five of its members, must be called by the Secretary General. The Council General may, by rule, order or resolution, provide for its own meetings. The Council General may remove from office any Officer or Councillor of the General Court, for any violation of the Constitution or By-Laws of the Order, or for conduct unbecoming a patriot or a good citizen, but only after an opportunity to be heard, and, pending the inquiry, it may suspend the person so charged and delegate his duties to another Associate.

Constitution and By-laws.

SEC. 11. In case any person, elected as an General Officer or Councillor General, shall fail to file with the Secretary General, within one month after notice by mail of his election, an acceptance in writing, the Council General shall appoint an Associate to fill the position until the next annual meeting of the General Court. The Council General shall fill all vacancies in the General Court, until the next annual meeting of the General Court. Any General Officer or Councillor General may resign, by mailing his resignation to the Secretary General.

ARTICLE II.

OFFICERS OF SOCIETIES.

SECTION 1. The Governor shall preside at all meetings of his Society, and of its Council, and perform such duties as usually pertain to a presiding officer, or as the Society or its Council may require. He shall appoint all committees, unless otherwise ordered by his Society or its Council.

SEC. 2. The Deputy Governor, in the absence of the Governor, shall perform his duties and exercise his powers. In the absence of the Governor and Deputy Governor from a meeting, a chairman pro tem. shall be chosen to preside.

SEC. 3. The Chaplain shall perform such religious services as may be called for by his Society or its Council.

SEC. 4. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of his Society and its Council, and shall have charge of the Charter, By-laws, Certificate of Incorporation, Seal and Records of his Society and its Council. He shall keep a roll of Associates of his Society, and a mailing address book for the post-office address of Associates. He shall give due notice to each Associate of his Society of its meetings, and to the members of the Council of their meetings. He shall keep a book, containing the Constitution and By-laws of the Order and the By-laws of his Society, to be signed by all Associates of his Society. He shall conduct the general correspondence of his Society, under the direction of its Governor, keep a record of all checks countersigned by him, and perform such other duties as may be required of him by his Society or its Council. All the books, records and papers kept by him, or in his charge officially, shall be the property of the Society. He shall make a report in writing at the annual meeting of his Society, and at such other times as the Society or its Council may direct, and a copy of such report and copies of all printed papers shall be sent at once to the Secretary General for the information of the General Court.

SEC. 5. The Treasurer shall collect and receive all funds belonging to his Society, and deposit the same to its credit, in such manner as his Society or its Council may direct. He shall give such bond as may be required by the Council. He shall pay out money only as his Society or its Council shall order by check, signed by him and countersigned by the Secretary. He shall notify all Associates of their election, and collect their fees and dues. He shall notify the Council, and also the Secretary, of all Associates in arrears for six months, also of the failure of a person elected to membership to pay his fee and dues within three months. He shall make a full and classified report, in writing, of money received and paid out, at the annual meeting of his Society, and at such other times as the Society or its Council may direct. He shall keep full and accurate accounts in books, to be the property of the Society, which shall always be open to the inspection of any Officer of the Society.

Constitution and By-laws.

SEC. 6. The States Attorney shall be the law adviser of his Society, and perform such other duties as the Society or its Council may require.

SEC. 7. The Registrar shall have the custody of all blank applications for membership, and shall issue the same as required or provided by his Council. He shall receive the duplicate applications for membership and examine, approve or disapprove thereof, and certify them in order and report thereon, to the Society or its Council, for approval. Before or after such report, he may require of the applicant for membership correction of his papers or further proofs. Upon the approval by the Society or its Council of any applicant, the Registrar shall endorse upon the duplicate applications the date of the approval, and forward one duplicate to the Registrar General, and retain for the Society the other duplicate, causing the same, if the applicant is elected as an Associate, to be bound into books as the Council may direct. He shall notify the Secretary and Treasurer, and also the Registrar General, of each Associate elected, and of his residence, place of business and post-office address, and of the date of election. He shall retain all such historical information as shall accompany applications for membership, and on request of the Historian General or Historian, shall furnish copies thereof. He shall perform such other duties as his Society or its Council may require. He shall report in writing, at the annual meeting of his Society, and at such other times as the Society or its Council may direct.

SEC. 8. The Genealogist shall examine and report to his Council upon all appeals from the decision or failure to act on the part of the Registrar, which shall be submitted to him, for that purpose, by the Council.

SEC. 9. The Historian shall have the custody of all documents and papers relating to the genealogy and history of the first colonists, their ancestors and descendants, which may be in the possession of or loaned to his Society or its Council, which shall be subject to the use and control of the Society or its Council, and which shall, when necessary, be subject to the inspection of the Genealogist. He shall also edit and publish such books, documents and papers as the Society or its Council may direct. He shall act as Necrologist. In case of the death of any member of the General Court, or any past Councillor General, the Historian of the Society of which such person was an Associate shall furnish to the Historian General such necrological information as may be in his possession. He shall make a report in writing, at the annual meeting of the Society, and at such other times as the Society or its Council may direct, and a copy of such report and copies of all printed papers shall be sent at once to the Historian General for the information of the General Court.

SEC. 10. The Council of each Society of the Order shall exercise the powers of the Society, when the Society is not in session. Five of its members shall constitute a quorum of the Council. Meetings of the Council may be called by the Governor of the Society, or, at the request of five of its members, must be called by the Secretary. The Council may, by rule, order or resolution, provide for its own meetings. The Council may remove from office any Officer or Councillor, for any violation of the Constitution or By-laws of the Order, or for conduct unbecoming a patriot, or a good citizen, but only after an opportunity to be heard, and, pending the inquiry, it may suspend the person so charged and delegate his duties to another Associate.

SEC. 11. Each Society may provide for other Officers, and for a Deputy or Assistant to an Officer of the Society, but no such Officer shall thereby become a member of the General Court, nor of the Council of his Society, but shall have only such other powers and perform such duties as his Society shall provide.

Constitution and By-laws.

SEC. 12. In case any person, elected as an Officer or Councillor of a Society, shall fail to file with its Secretary, within one month after notice by mail of his election, an acceptance in writing, the Council shall appoint an Associate to fill the position until the next annual meeting of the Society. The Council shall fill all vacancies in its numbers, until the next annual meeting of the Society. Any Officer or Councillor may resign, by mailing his resignation to the Secretary of his Society.

ARTICLE III.

MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1. Every applicant for membership must apply in writing and in duplicate to a Society in the State, District, Territory or Country within whose jurisdiction he resides. If no Society exists therein, the applicant may apply to any Society. The applicant must state his age, residence, occupation, place of business, his post-office address, and such other information as the Society or the General Court may direct, or such as may be required by the Constitution or By-laws of the Order. He must be recommended by two Associates, and the application must be presented to the Council of the Society, and shall be accompanied by such historical information concerning his ancestors as the Society or its Council may request. The application shall be examined as the By-laws of the particular Society shall require, in order to ascertain the qualifications of the applicant, and shall be reported, approved or disapproved, to the Society or its Council for election. Such election must be by ballot, and one negative ballot in every five cast, or five negative ballots in all, shall reject the applicant, and he cannot again apply for membership within one year thereafter, nor to any other Society than that in which rejected, without its consent. Prior to the election of any Associate, one of the duplicates of the application papers shall be forwarded to and approved or disapproved by the Registrar General, subject to appeal to the General Court. If such appeal be decided against him, he cannot again apply for membership in the Order, within one year thereafter. After the election of an Associate, and payment by him of the initiation fee and one year's dues, and his signing the Constitution, in person or by proxy, he shall then become an Associate. Every Associate shall retain his membership in any Society to which admitted, until such connection is severed by resignation, transfer, suspension, dropping from the rolls or expulsion.

SEC. 2. Any Associate in good standing, not in arrears or otherwise indebted to any Society or to the Order, may resign his membership in the Order, by written notice to the Secretary of any Society in which he is enrolled.

SEC. 3. Any person, an Associate of more than one Society, may resign his membership in any Society, in the same manner and on the same terms as he may resign his membership in the Order.

SEC. 4. Each Society may provide for and regulate the suspension or expulsion of its Associates, subject to an appeal to the General Court.

ARTICLE IV.

FUNDS.

SECTION 1. The initiation fee shall be five dollars. Each Society shall fix the amount of its annual dues, not exceeding five dollars, payable in advance; provided that the dues, paid by an Associate elected within three months before the annual meeting of his Society, shall be in full of annual dues for the current year following such annual meeting. Associates shall pay dues to the several Societies in which they are enrolled. Each Society may provide for resident and non-resident members, and fix the dues for each class of members, its non-resident membership to consist of all Associates residing more than a certain distance, which each Society may determine for itself, from its headquarters.

§ SEC. 2. Any resident Associate may commute his annual dues by paying, at any time, a sum equal to ten years' annual dues, and shall thereupon become a life member, and shall thereafter be exempt from the payment of dues to the Society in which he shall have so commuted his dues.

ARTICLE V.

NOTICES.

All notices, required by the Constitution or By-laws of the Order, or the By-Laws of any Society, shall be mailed to the person to be notified, to the address he shall have furnished with his application papers, or afterward to the Secretary of his Society, or to the Secretary General. The number of days' notice, which shall be deemed a due notice, shall be determined, for the General Court or Council General by resolution, and for any Society, or its Council, by the By-laws of the Society.

ARTICLE VI.

AMENDMENTS.

These By-laws may be amended at any annual meeting of the General Court, by a two-thirds majority of all the votes cast, the vote being taken by Societies

General Regulations.

(Adopted May 14, 1900.)

I.

The General Court and the Council General shall meet whenever called by the Governor General.

II.

The roll of the General Court and of the Council General shall be made up from the records of the General Court and the returns of the several Societies of the Order, but the title of any member may be investigated as the General Court may direct.

III.

Every officer of the General Court shall orally, if present, and also in writing to be filed with the Secretary General, make pledge to support and maintain the Constitution, By-Laws, Rules, and Regulations of the Order of the Founders and Patriots of America, and to discharge the duties of the office to which he is elected or qualified to the best of his ability.

IV.

1. Committees shall be Permanent, Standing or Special. A Permanent Committee is one so designated by the General Court, and continues in being until expressly discharged. A Standing Committee is one annually appointed, and continues in being until the next following annual meeting of the General Court. Every other Committee is a Special Committee and is discharged by the acceptance of its report, unless expressly continued by the body appointing it.

2. The Council General appoints only its own Committees.

3. The Standing Committees of the General Court are:

(1.) On Installation, to consist of five members, who shall conduct all installations and to whom shall be referred by the Secretary General for their approval, all written pledges of officers of the General Court.

(2.) On Finance, to consist of three members, to whom shall be referred the returns from all the Societies and their officers, as to numbers of their associates and their finances, and to report, from time to time, a budget of the probable expenses of the General Court and of its officers, and the proportion thereof to be assessed upon each Society.

(3.) On Nominations, of five members, three of whom shall be past Governors General or actual or past Governors or Deputy Governors, to nominate to the annual meeting of the General Court candidates for all the offices of the General Court.

General Regulations.

(4.) On Audit, of three members, who shall have power to examine, audit and authorize payment by the Treasurer General of all accounts and claims against the General Court which shall have been authorized by it or for which appropriation shall have been made; and after each annual meeting until such Committee shall be appointed the Governor General, Deputy Governor General and Secretary General shall act as such Committee.

4. All Committees of the General Court or of the Council General shall be appointed by the Governor General, unless the body shall otherwise order.

5. When any Associate ceases to be a member of the General Court, he shall at the same time cease to be a member of any of its Committees. (Amendment added May 13, 1902.)

V.

The Insignia of the Order shall be worn by all actual and past Governors General and all actual and past Governors, also by all actual officers of the Order, suspended from the Ribbon of the Order about the neck of the wearer, and by all other Associates of the Order fastened upon the left breast of the coat.

VI.

The Insignia, Rosette, Ribbon and Diploma of the Order shall be issued to the Associates by or upon the order of the Registrar General, upon the payment of such fee as the General Court shall fix for each thereof. Upon the Insignia shall be engraved the name, State and National number of the member to whom issued. Upon each Diploma shall appear in his genuine handwriting, the name of the Governor General and Registrar General.

VII.

At every meeting of the General Court, the presiding officer having called the members to order, and they being seated, shall announce, "Associates, let us receive the colors," at which all the members of the General Court shall rise, face the outer door of the room from which the colors shall be borne by two officers detailed for that purpose; the colors shall be carried to the station of the presiding officer and there securely and properly stationed and rested, during all of which the members of the General Court shall remain standing and continue to face the colors as they are carried. When the colors shall have been rested and while the members of the General Court remain standing, the chaplain, or in his absence the person to be appointed by the presiding officer, shall offer a prayer; the members shall then be seated.

VIII.

The Secretary General is authorized from time to time to order such stationery as may be necessary for the General Court and its officers upon the approval of the Attorney General as to form. (Amendment, added May 13, 1901.)
